

Jennifer's Credo

(Draft version as I am always a work in progress and as I find the right words to articulate my credo even more powerfully I will add them)

What kind of person do I want to be?

- Generous
- Compassionate
- Open minded
- Principled
- Ethical
- Authentic
- Curious
- Courageous
- Growth minded
- Trustworthy

How do you hope others will see me?

- Open to feedback
- Good at communication
- Self-aware and open to learning
- Caring - for others, the underdog, the oppressed, etc.
- Capable
- Easy to work with - flexible and able to improv
- Willing and able to sit in discomfort
- Willing to make change and be bold - do hard things
- Someone who speaks up and finds her voice around what matters

What do I want to stand for?

- Potential and growth in all people - that all should be given the opportunities to live a purposeful, meaningful, productive life
- Standing up to hatred, violence, evil, and injustice
- Democratic values such as free speech, justice for all and so much more for all individuals world wide
- The importance of engagement in transformational work not just transactional work
